SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS RESPOND TO CALL TO 1ST ANNUAL CONFERENCE

During the present week the first annual conference for Sunday school workers was held in the parish house of Central Union church. The meetings were held on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday in the afternoons and evenings. The total attendance at all the meetings was 182 and of this number there were 111 different persons. Some were able to attend only one session, others two or three sessions, and a few were present at almost all the meetings.
At least 12 Sunday schools were represented at the conference by their superintendents or teachers. There were 14 speakers on the program and they presented subjects of interest and value to all Sunday school workers. It was fitting that on the first day the subject of "Child Study" should have been discussed.
This was done in an able manner by Messrs. MacCaughy and Flitts. The need of a proper environment for the child was pointed out, and the necessity of studying the various periods of development was shown.
In the afternoon session of the second day papers were read by Messrs.
Chamberlain and Hopwood on "Bible Study," the first showing the way to study the Bible for culture and the second paper treating of studying the Bible for spiritual power. In the evening Miss Macdonald gave a stimulating address on "Some Essentials of Teaching," showing that what is needed is love, belief, in ideals, knowledge, experience and plans for work. Paul Super's talk that evening was explanatory of three of the seven laws of teaching. He took up the law of the teacher, the law of teaching and the law of the learning process.

Interest and Attention.
On the third afternoon Mrs. May Wilcox gave a very helpful address on "securing Interest and Attention." To get these essentials of all teaching, the teacher must be prompt, take an interest in the general exercises, keep an accurate record of attendance, know the pupils well and know the lessons. P. L. Horne read a very illuminating paper on "The Art of Questioning," which it is to be hoped will be published before long. On Thursday evening Theodore Richards spoke on "Bible Reading and Confident Teaching," emphasizing the need for the positive and affirmative note in all our teaching. There is no confidence in negation, Mr. Richards declared, but affirmation makes us bold.
Mr. Richards' address was followed by an instructive talk by Mrs.
L. G. Marshall, illustrating her way of teaching the lesson by the use of the blackboard.

Closing Day's Session.
The last day of the conference the attendance was affected by the rain, but those present enjoyed the address by Rev. Frank Scudder on "Teaching Reverence and Respect," and Rev.
John P. Erdman's talk on "Duties of Leadership." Mr. Scudder pointed out the present tendency towards irreverence and disrespect, and declared that we must first of all have clear convictions of the desirability of respect and reverence, if we would counteract their opposites, and that teachers should appear reverential before the pupils, and the exercises of the Sunday school should be conduc-tive to the spirit of worship. Mr. Erdman's address was an appeal to the leaders to create an esprit-de-corps and feeling of loyalty among teachers and pupils.

Dr. Scudder's talk on "Evangelism in the Sunday school" brought out the fact that the main object of the school is to evangelize. He spoke of ways in which this important work could be done. Mr. Judd's address on "The Opportunity of the Sunday School" was an appeal to the teachers to enter the open doors of opportunity by fitting themselves for seizing the many opportunities.

Next year it is the plan to have another series of conferences for all Sunday school workers, and the first week of November will be reserved for this special event. Now that the idea has been presented before the public, it is hoped that the second annual conference will be more largely attended than the first conference just ended, and that Sunday school workers will remember the date for the meetings and plan to be present.
They will be in charge of Rev. Henry P. Judd, who had the direction of the conferences of this past week.

HILLO NOTES

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] HILLO, Nov. 7.—Fifty thousand dollars is the sum that T. K. Lalakea may have to pay to the county of Hawaii because he refused to settle a claim of some $10,000 on the same property on which the first Bank of Hillo settled a claim. This is an announcement that was made late yesterday afternoon. Up until yesterday it was believed that Lalakea had decided to compromise with the county, but yesterday his attorney, W. H. Smith, is reported to have declared that the claim was to be fought in the courts.

Maxima Soriso the young Spanish woman who was indicted for perjury at a former session of the grand jury, was given a suspended sentence when she appeared before Judge Parsons and entered a plea of guilty. The perjury charge grew out of a rape complaint she made against a countryman who was committed in the district court.

health inspectors, has sued his wife,

OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS To the Advertiser

At a meeting of the Mexican cabinet held Thursday night the cabinet decided unanimously to support Huerta in refusing to resign, regardless of consequences. It was decided to delay the final answer to the American government as long as possible which will enable the Mexican administration to make more complete preparations for war. These are already under way.

Because of the hostility of Huerta toward any outside interference especially on the part of the United States, members of the American colony feared the presence of Envoy Lind in Mexico City might hasten the rupture.

The morning train carried a number of Americans on their way toward Vera Cruz, where they would be under the protection of the United States warships.

Huerta is placing troops along the broad line of communication between Mexico City and Vera Cruz.

News of the coming of Lind toward Vera Cruz is regarded as a supreme effort by President Wilson to avert war. He came 24 hours after the conference between O'Shaughnessy and Huerta in the national palace.

Persistent rumors were circulated yesterday that Sir Lionel Gordon, the British minister, has assured Huerta that England will not force intervention by the United States.

Only three members of the House and Senate who have kept their lamps burning with the "oil of support of the administration" will be numbered among the 400 wedding guests who on November 25 will witness the marriage of Miss Jessie Wilson in the east room of the White House. These wise men will be asked to bring their wives, but the other members of their families have not been summoned.

Miss Gertrude W. Hasler, concert and church singer, and Frederick A.
Carpenter, Chicago business man, were married yesterday in Kansas-City, Mo., by Judge Clifford E. Randall.
The bride was recently awarded $50,000 for breach of promise from Carl G. Fisher, an Indianapolis millionaire clubman.

Diplomatic dispatches received yesterday from Rio de Janeiro stated that Brazil had appropriated $500,000 for displays at the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco.

A dispatch from New York yesterday afternoon brought the brief announcement of the death of S. A. Hamburger. He owned the Hamburger department store in Los Angeles, one of the largest west of Chicago.

A mob smashed in the doors of the Dyersburg, Tenn., jail yesterday afternoon, removed John Talley, a negro, 18-years old, and lynched him in the courthouse yard. The negro was accused of attacking a white woman.

The Indianapolis street car strike was ended last night when both strikers and the street car company agreed to arbitrate their differences. All strikers have been reinstated.

With the trial of Mendel Meiliss for "ritual murder" nearing a close, the prosecution made an attempt today to prove its contention that the boy was a victim of a sacrificial murder.

The United States department of public health has entered the moving picture business to instruct the public. Yesterday arrangements were made to secure a long series of motion pictures of the health department, its personnel, the work accomplished by its members and the sanitary means employed to prevent disease throughout the United States.

Francis D. Sayre, fiancé of Miss Jessie Wilson, daughter of the president, was today appointed deputy assistant district attorney of New York City by Charles S. Whitman. He will only hold the position for a short time, as he will become secretary to President Harry Garfield of Williams College at the beginning of the new year.

Armed with dynamite bombs and automatic revolvers with which to assassinate the governor of Che-Kiang Province, five young Chinese were arrested aboard a steamer sailing out of Shanghai yesterday morning, according to telegraphic advices just received in Canton.

PROMOTERS BUSY SENDING MAIL TO COAST

Letters from commercial clubs and transportation companies from different points in the United States and Canada, acknowledging the receipt of Floral Parade posters and Crossroads maps, were presented and read at the meeting of the Promotion Committee yesterday afternoon, this forming the principal business of the session. These letters are to the effect that the posters and maps have been placed where they may be seen by all, and the committee feels gratified at the co-operation which it is receiving in advertising the February celebration and the islands.

By the first of next week the committee will send to the different steamship and railway companies on the mainland additional supplies of literature, requests for which have been received during the past five days. It is believed that the remainder of the posters and maps will be mailed next week. The letter stickers, numbering 40,000, will be received from the printers about Wednesday, at which time they will be given out to those wishing them. In the absence of Secretary Wood, who is now on the mainland in the combined interest of the Promotion Committee and the Hawaii Fair Commission, Ed Towse presided at the meeting.

In the case of Masuichi Tanaka, the Japanese who was recently refused a landing here on the charge of being an undesirable alien and who resorted to habeas corpus proceedings, which was heard in Judge Clemon's court this morning, a decision was handed down which will result in Tanaka's deportation. This is the fifth time the case has been argued in the courts.
